

ONLINE LEARNING RESOURCES

Stream online instructional videos covering the latest software, creative, and business skills, taught by accomplished teachers and recognized industry experts. Lynda.com is for anyone looking to learn new skills in a wide range of subjects, including photography, animation, music, web development, software, and project management.

Take a wide range of free online classes led by expert instructors on Gale Courses. Take up to 6 courses per calendar year. Courses run for 6 weeks and new sessions begin every month

With Universal Class, access nearly 500 online classes taught by real instructors and explore a diverse range of subjects including computers, business, home & garden, health, and technology. Start a new class at any time.

Enjoy self-paced classes for all ages in over 70 languages with Mango. ESL courses in Spanish, Mandarin, Arabic, Japanese, and more are also available.

Get help on demand, anytime, anywhere. Brainfuse is eLearning for all ages and all levels, offering skill-building in a variety of subjects and features like live tutoring, job coaching, and a 24-hour writing lab.

Get a second chance to finish what you started. Adults 19 and over can earn an accredited high school diploma for free online in just 18 months or less through LA County Library and the Career Online High School program. You'll also receive a career certificate and personalized online career coaching.

Get free family engagement tips, powered by ReadyRosie, a digital program that emphasizes early educational development, promotes kindergarten readiness, and helps parents turn daily activities into learning opportunities with short videos.

Stay connected. Follow @LACountyLibrary

